

English

- Letter writing and poetry based on our whole school chosen text, Here we Are by Oliver Jeffers
- Narrative writing and drama
- Writing and delivering motivational speech
- Recount writing
- Reading lessons, including our new approach, 'Book Talk'

Design and Technology and Art and Design

- Mosaics, focusing on creativity and pattern
- Use research to design, make and evaluate a fit-for-use Roman Chariot
- Henry Moore and his depiction of the Blitz
- Improving mastery of art and design techniques: drawing using a variety of media

Computing

- Using laptops and iPads to research
- Understanding and staying safe on the internet
- Using Espresso Coding to use sequence, selection and repetition in programs

P.E.

- Athletics and dance with Laura.
- Invasion games with Coach Charlie.

Science

- Properties and changes of materials:
 - uses of and comparing and grouping materials
 - reversible and irreversible changes
 - dissolving and separating mixtures
- Digestive system and human teeth

Maths

- Place value in five-digit numbers, including negative numbers, roman numerals, rounding, comparing and ordering numbers
- Solving problems using all four operations (using written and mental methods)
- Statistics
- Measurement – Area and perimeter

Geography

- Locational Knowledge:
 - locating countries studied and their major cities
 - locating counties of the United Kingdom
- Human and Physical Geography:
 - land use in London throughout history

R.E.

- Christianity
- Judaism

P.S.H.E.

- Well-being
- Healthy eating
- Respectful relationships
- First aid

History

- Looking at how aspects of national history (focusing on the invasion of the Romans and the Second World War) are reflected in our locality
- The Roman Empire and its impact on Britain
- World War 2

Year 5 Autumn Term: Who was here before us?

